

join! go

go! join!

Love shaped: Tavarua Island (romantic view)

Fiji's romantic islands escape

Fall in love with the island nation of Fiji and get your fill of sea, sunshine and romance on five of its most alluring islands, writes Hanna Hussein.

Do you know that among Fiji's archipelago of islands, there's one island that's heart-shaped? You can safely say that Fiji overall is one of the most romantic places to visit in the world or rekindle the flame.

Aside from the heart-shaped tiny Tavarua island, there are 322 beautiful ones. Only one third is inhabited. Be it your honeymoon, anniversary or wedding, Fiji Airways lists five of the most private and pristine islands that promise paradise on earth for you and your significant other.

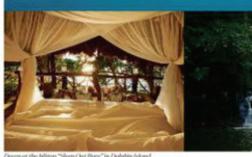

And if you ever get tired of lounging by the beach or in your luxurious villa by the water, there's a ton of activity to get the blood rushing before retreating to romantic sunset cocktails.

With Fiji Airways offering twice-weekly direct flights from Singapore, this unearthly paradise is now only a few comfortable hours away. It gets better as the airline is now offering a sale that starts for as low as SGD749 per adult.

Available for purchase from now until Feb 12, the special price is for travelling period from now until Oct 31. Check for more information, visit www.fijairways.com.

Why not spend the night in your own or a deluxe honeymoon villa.

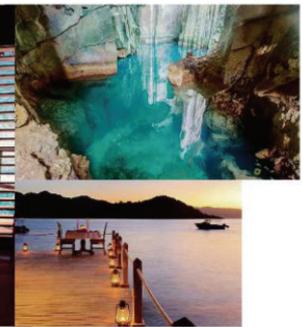

Enjoy the relaxing "Sleep 'n' Sip" on Dolphin Island.

Love from an ocean view does not fail in Fiji.

Admiring the view from your villa.

The heavenly view of Loma Loma is a sight to behold.

For the ultimate sunset view, Fiji has several magnificent private islands which offer a romantic escape.

Not only can you enjoy the view, but you can also enjoy the view from the water in the heart of the island.

For the ultimate sunset view, Fiji has several magnificent private islands which offer a romantic escape.

Not only can you enjoy the view, but you can also enjoy the view from the water in the heart of the island.

For the ultimate sunset view, Fiji has several magnificent private islands which offer a romantic escape.

Not only can you enjoy the view, but you can also enjoy the view from the water in the heart of the island.

For the ultimate sunset view, Fiji has several magnificent private islands which offer a romantic escape.

Not only can you enjoy the view, but you can also enjoy the view from the water in the heart of the island.

For the ultimate sunset view, Fiji has several magnificent private islands which offer a romantic escape.

Not only can you enjoy the view, but you can also enjoy the view from the water in the heart of the island.

For the ultimate sunset view, Fiji has several magnificent private islands which offer a romantic escape.

Not only can you enjoy the view, but you can also enjoy the view from the water in the heart of the island.

For the ultimate sunset view, Fiji has several magnificent private islands which offer a romantic escape.

Fall in love with the island nation of Fiji and get your fill on sea, sunshine and romance on five of its most alluring islands, writes Hanna Hussein.

Do you know that among Fiji's archipelago of islands, there's one island that is heart-shaped? You can safely say Fiji overall is one of the most romantic places in which to tie the knot or rekindle the flame.

Aside from the heart-shaped tiny Tavarua island, there are 322 beautiful ones. Only one third is inhabited. Be it your honeymoon, anniversary or wedding, Fiji Airways lists five of the most private and pristine islands that promise paradise on earth for you and your significant other.

And if you ever get tired of lounging by the beach or in your luxurious villa by the water, there's a ton of activity to get the blood rushing before retreating to romantic sunset cocktails.

With Fiji Airways offering twice-weekly direct flights from Singapore, this unearthly paradise is now only a few comfortable hours away. It gets better as the airline is now offering a sale that starts for as low as SGD749 per adult.

Available for purchase from now until Feb 12, the special price is for travelling period from now until Oct 31. Check for more information, visit www.fijairways.com.

Dolphin Island

If you're after rustic luxury and ultra exclusive romance, you can't go past Dolphin Island. Down the Suncoast side of the main island, this all-inclusive escape literally becomes your home away from home, because bookings here are on an exclusive-use basis, which means you're the only guests.

Whether it's a romantic rendezvous for two, or a vacation for the whole family, the island and its grounds and activities are all yours. This is Swiss family Robinson on a 5-star resort scale.

Apart from the beachfront villas, you can also choose to spend the night and welcome the dawn in the Hilltop Sleep-out Bure. Leave the kids with the island nanny and rekindle the romance in this utterly divine, thatched, open-air bedroom lit by candlelight.

During the day time, take a leisurely hike through the local forest, go kayaking, learn to fish or dive; there's also a suite of relaxing spa treatments. Enjoy your meals in your room, in the main bure, al fresco by the pool or on the beach under the stars.