

Bula!

In Fiji, 'Bula' is more than just a greeting. It's a wish for happiness, good health and the energy of life.

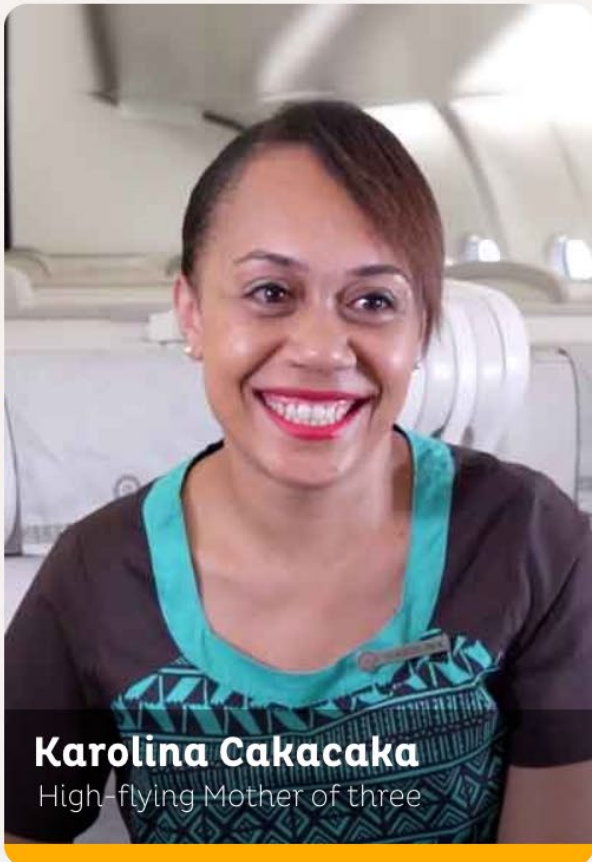

To share the 'Bula Spirit' we have created a Bulanaires List. It's a twist on the popular billionaires lists and instead celebrates people from around the globe who are truly rich, rich in happiness!

Learn more about our Bulanaires below and share in the "Bula Spirit" of Fiji.

And remember you can be a Bulanaire too, it's a mindset.

Meet the Bulanaires

Bulanaires are people from around the globe who are rich in happiness. These inspirational people are being recognised as Bulanaires with the vision that they will share their happiness and the Bula Spirit with the world. The 2019 Inaugural Bulanaires include representatives from Fiji, Australia, New Zealand, USA, Asia, India and Europe.

Dawn Simpson

The moment you set foot on Dolphin Private Island Resort in the spectacular Suncoast, you'll feel like family. And a large part of that feeling can be attributed to super host, Dawn Simpson.

Dawn has spent her entire hospitality career at this exclusive resort contributing in her own special way to build a very real luxury 'castaway' paradise, where guests can enjoy the warm, generous style of hospitality that Fijians are well known for.

Warm and bubbly, Dawn is big on hugs and kisses and greets everyone like she's known them her whole life. It's an attitude she credits to growing up with strong family values.

With people visiting from all over the world, Dawn finds little to tempt her away from her small island paradise, finding contentment in sharing her love of Fiji with her guests and being a Fijian mother to them all.
